CAPTAIN JAMAL D. ALFORD

Captain Jamal Alford recently served as the Deployment and Distribution Flight Commander for the 377th Logistics Readiness Squadron. He was primarily responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of air and ground transportation, traffic management operations for on-time delivery, to include cargo and personal property, real-world deployment executions and host tenant support to Team Kirtland. He served as a focal point to posture timely transportation support for critical incoming Special Assignment Airlift Missions and Reflex Delta operations. He served as a key Emergency Operations Center representative for the Logistics Readiness Squadron and ensures all logistics functions are prepared to support and respond to any base incident. Beginning in July 2021, he will serve as an Assistant Professor of Aerospace Studies and the Assistant Recruiting Officer at Detachment 765, The Citadel in Charleston, South Carolina.

Captain Alford entered the active duty Air Force in September 2015, after earning his commission as a Second Lieutenant in December 2014 from the University of Alabama. Throughout his career, he has served in numerous roles in the Logistics Readiness community. In 2020, he deployed to Afghanistan to serve as a Logistics Mentor and Chief of Plans & Programs.
